FROM AUTHOR
ASHLEY HARDS

Write a JOURNAL ENTRY

from Hannah's point of view that introduces a new mystery.

Write a LISTICLE

of 5 things Hannah will know by the time she solves the mystery.

Draw a BOOK COVER

for your new Hannah Edwards book. Don't forget a title!

Draw a 6-PANEL COMIC of Hannah finding a mysterious note. Don't say who wrote it, but leave a context clue somewhere in the comic.

FREE SPACE

What other creative ways can we use to tell stories?

Write a transcript of an AUDIO RECORDING of a conversation Hannah has with another character that reveals an important clue.

Design a BROCHURE

for Riverway's tourist center. In the brochure, introduce your setting and reveal one clue.

Write a POEM

about something Sam does that helps move Hannah's investigation forward.

Create a NEWS ARTICLE

where Hannah can find important information she will need to solve the case.

PICK ONE!

My bike has been lost—no, stolen! And I know how I’m going to find it!

Nothing could have prepared me for what happened today: I got sent to detention. But it wasn’t my fault!

It all started when Sam, Tim, and I were playing in the park during Spring Break. The statue of Wallace “Big Gun” Morrow was missing!
